

---

Eastern North Carolina Society of GI Nurses and Associates

---

To ENCSGNA Supporters:

The Eastern North Carolina SGNA (ENCSGNA), will be hosting our next educational spring conference entitled “ A Roaring 20’s GI Extravaganza” April 17 & 18, 2020 at the Embassy Suites Brier Creek, Raleigh, North Carolina.

This 1.5-day conference is geared toward GI professionals and is designed to provide an educational opportunity focusing on clinically relevant topics in Gastroenterology. In particular, this conference will focus on topics such as, Endobariatrics, Small bowel Endoscopy, EOE, POEM, Infusion Therapy for GI Disorders, Fecal Transplant, Biliary Disease, Hepatic Disorders, Anesthesia in Endoscopy, About the Pancreas, and Colorectal Cancer Screening.

The CE component of the conference will provide participants with up to 10 Credits hours along with a wealth of information that will help enhance care delivery in their respective GI areas with the goal of optimizing patient services in the field.

Board Members of the ENCSGNA want to thank you for always supporting Eastern North Carolina SGNA at our Biannual Educational Conferences. We hope you will consider exhibiting at this great conference. We anticipate 140 GI professionals to be in attendance.

The Vendor Exhibit Cost for the 2020 spring conference is as follows:

Vendor Space for Friday, April 17, 2020- Exhibit Space: $450.00

Vendor Space for Saturday, April 18, 2020- Exhibit Space: $750.00

This includes one table 4x8 table within the vendor allocated space.

Platinum Sponsorship Level: $2,000.00

This includes cost of exhibit space for Friday and Saturday conference, larger exhibit table space, 2-4x8 tables, in premium area space in the main conference hall, national recognition and special mention recognition during the conference.

Again, thanks for your continued support and we hope you will consider sponsoring the ENCSGNA Spring Conference 2020.